

Contents

Fosterage, kinship, and the circulation of children in ancient Greece	Jan N. Bremmer	1
Greek Shadow Puppet	Francis Blessington	21
Mathematical mysteries in Byzantium: the transmission of Fermat's last theorem	Judith Herrin	22
A Hebrew Lament from Venetian Crete on the Fall of Constantinople	Michael ben Shabbetai Cohen Balbo, translated by Avi Sharon	43
Formula and invention: the poetry of Pope's Iliad	Charalambos Neophytou	47
A new history of the Greek language	Alan H. Sommerstein, Elizabeth Jeffreys, and Peter Mackridge	69
By His Own Hand	Michail Mitsakis, translated by David Ricks	83
Theophanes, a great chronographer	Michael Whitby	98
Richard Wagner and the Greeks	Wolfgang Schadewaldt, translated by David C. Durst, with a response by John Deathridge	108
Taking a leaf from Gibbon: appraising Byzantium	Andrew Louth, John Haldon, Ruth Webb, John Lowden and David Womersley	141
Notes on contributors		156
Information for contributors		158